ACADEMY DIVISION RULES

Entries must be made by 7pm on 3/24

Academy classes are open to riders who actively participate in a riding lesson program (i.e.: with an instructor who teaches more than one student and accepts payment for such). The Academy rider may not have shown in any division at any show, except 4H and/or Academy/Tournament shows. Academy horses or ponies must be school horses and earn their living in a riding lesson program. Family owned horses may be used provided the horse is regularly used as a school horse. Horses may be cross entered in other classes; performance horses not utilized in a lesson program are prohibited. ANY OUT OF CONTROL HORSE WILL BE EXCUSED IMMEDIATELY! The class will be stopped until the horse/rider have been assisted from the show ring.

Equitation judging will be based on basic equitation skills including correct diagonals, canter leads, balanced form, and effective control of the mount. No test will be allowed, classes will be judged on rail work and in the lineup. Pleasure judging will be based on the riders ability to present their horse as a pleasure mount. The horse or pony will not be judged, however, must display characteristics and manners necessary for safety in a lesson program.

Riders

- Riders who have cantered at any show are not eligible to compete in walk/trot classes.
- Attire to be jodphur pants and boots with a white men's type shirt. Neckties and vests are permitted. Barn logo attire and full riding suits are not allowed.
- Protective headgear (SEI Approved) is REQUIRED for all riders 10 & under. All other riders are encouraged to wear protective headgear (SEI Approved). Derbies or other hats are not permitted.
- Hair should be styled neatly back from the face and not obstructing the back number.
- Leather gloves and riding whips are optional.

Horses

- Horses may not be braided. Standard show clipping and hoof black/dressing is permitted.
- Horses may not wear any artificial devices or be gingered. Action devices (chains, "stretches", bag whips, noise makers, powder, etc.) are prohibited
- Horses are not required to be shod or plated.
- Horses may be any breed. Stallions are prohibited.

Equipment

- A flat, English saddle is required.
- Any bridle (including work type) is permissible.
- Protective equipment (boots, leg wraps) is permitted.
